WHAT GOES ON AT AN IOWATER BIOLOGICAL MONITORING WORKSHOP?

A variety of session settings, indoors and outdoors, will contain topics such as aquatic life, the "why-to" and "how-to" of biological monitoring, what to do with the data, networking with others in your area concerned with water quality, and some muddy fun!

All Biological workshops are based on eight hours of training. Hours may vary depending on location. Workshop registration fee is $15.00 dollars per person*. This fee covers all program fees, meals, and testing equipment. Check should be payable to Iowa DNR and sent to IOWATER at 109 Trowbridge Hall, Iowa City, IA 52242.
